

Photos by Averi Kent

“A Slaying At The Speakeasy” Murder Mystery

Friday, October 28, 2022 | Lake Jackson Historical Museum.

Lake Jackson Historical Museum hosted a 1920s-themed murder mystery fundraiser, and both organizers and guests dressed the part.

John Weber and Jan Buegeler try to figure out the murder mystery at the Lake Jackson Historical Museum.

John Weber as Tommy Beagle and Michael Bailey as Beanie O'Dannon interact to figure out clues as to who the killer is at the Historical Museum in Lake Jackson.

Jan Buegeler as Zetta Zarbo and Sarah Ellet-Cardinal as Aggie Christy participate in the Lake Jackson Historical Museum's murder-mystery fundraiser.

Participants of the Murder Mystery gathers to collaborate on finding the "killer" at the Historical Museum in Lake Jackson.

Michael Bailey and Janet Mallard pose for a picture in costume at the Lake Jackson Historical Museum's murder-mystery fundraiser.

Crystal Beal and Courtney Crews discuss clues to find the killer at the 1920s murder-mystery fundraiser.

Carl Wolfe and Susan Buell portrays Marlie Maplin and Georgie O'Keith at the historical museum's murder-mystery fundraiser.

Stacy Nelson, left, Dana Fitze and Sarah Ellet-Cardinal dress in 1920s outfits to participate in the murder-mystery fundraiser, held by the Lake Jackson Historical Museum.

Clyde Ferguson and Josh Ferguson (playing Ducky Shultz) attend their first murder-mystery event at the Lake Jackson Historical Museum.

Guests play a game to put in order events of the Prohibition era at the historical museum for its murder-mystery fundraiser.